Votes of members in your district in favour of abolishing systematic overtime. against Votes of members in your district in favour of abolishing piecework. against State the general feeling of the men employed at the trade in your district on the questions of piecework and systematic overtime. This schedule was to be filled tip and returned to the general secretary by the 14th of August. I do not know whether it has ever been asserted that the opinions of the men were not fairly taken on this Circular. No such assertion was made while the lock-out lasted; it is probable, therefore, that the voting was honest. The result was certainly curious--out of 11, 800 members upwards of 9, 000 voted, and of these only 16 in favour of piecework and systematic overtime. The Executive Council seem to have thought the battle already won when the...
