By Heather Hilliard

XAMonline, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What test should you take? One competitive test for future science majors is the advanced placement English language and literacy tests, however, many excellent students augment that with the SAT English test to show further interest in this specialty. If you do well on the SAT English we have a bonus idea that can save you time in college and make some course tuition fees free! The bonus idea earn college credits too. High school students who did not have the AP experience are encouraged to take the SAT English test if their intended college requires it. However, if you are looking to save both money on tuition and fast track through some of the easier English courses you are encouraged to take the CLEP tests which offers by far the easiest three college credits which are accepted currently 2,900 colleges. The CLEP series has a number of tests you can choose from. XAMonline offers all the English sample tests in one book called the CLEP Literature Series 1 or use an in depth review of any one test such as CLEP Analyzing literature,...
