

Prisoner of His Heart: Hot Gay Romance (Paperback)

By Chris Johns

Blvnp Incorporated, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I had lost four years of my life. Imprisoned for a crime he didn't do, David spent years in prison before being pardoned by the government. He had been isolated, abused and cut off from possibilities of fulfilling his human needs for years, fearing he would die that way. There was a light at the end of his tunnel, but he still had to get through that last hurdle. Troy waits for David during all those years, hoping to see the man he loves so much. He grew into a man he knows would make David proud, and he is determined to be with David even if they never see each other again. But when the lovers get the moment they've been waiting for, they realize how distant the other is, and how much both of them have changed. Will they ever overcome this turmoil and find a silver lining? Or will they drift apart like they should have been when David was convicted? Sample: He threw himself into my arms and cried. I thought I...
