

Youve Got Some Explaining to Do: Advice for Neuroscientists Writing for Lay Readers

By Jane Nevins

Dana Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 128 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.4in. x 0.3in. What are people who read opinion-page articles looking for? How can you reach people who read general-interest magazines? Hint: It's not the same as your colleagues or science journals. This compact book offers the reasons and information that can help scientific writers adopt new habits to be successful and happy writing for a non-science audience. Go ahead and write journal-style for science journals and colleagues, says longtime science editor Jane Nevins, but you'll need to try different styles to reach a different audience. The book is divided into three parts: The Meet-up, Simple Fixes, and Science and Style. In The Meet-up, Nevins describes the different venues for lay writing, from opinion pages to popular magazines, and what readers of each expect and respond to best. In Simple Fixes, she shows how jargon, cross-over words, and hackneyed expressions can be remedied, clearing away confusion for your readers. In Science and Style, she discusses what to put first, how to quote and paraphrase in lay copy, and what to leave out. Throughout Youve Got Some Explaining to Do, Nevins gives concrete, specific examples tied to neuroscience. The author,...
